

Introduction

Purpose of the Church Order

Article 1

In accordance with the apostolic injunction (1 Cor. 14:40) that in the Church of Christ all things are to be done decently and in order, the Reformed Churches of New Zealand, in this Church Order, regulate their organisation and activities, so that they may fulfil their calling according to the Scriptures and the Reformed Confessions.

The main subjects treated in this Order are the Church's Offices, Assemblies, Worship and Discipline.

Offices of the Church

Two Kinds of Offices

Article 2

The ordinary and perpetual offices of the Church, as instituted by the authority of Christ for the Church, may be classified under two heads, as Elders and Deacons.

Eligibility for Office

Article 3

Only Communicant Members of the Church who meet the biblical requirements for office-bearers are eligible for office. No one shall hold and exercise an office in the Church without a lawful call and ordination or installation.

Legal Call to the Office

Article 4

The call to an office shall be executed by the session as follows:

1. Prior to making nomination, the session shall ordinarily give the congregation an opportunity to place names in nomination.
2. From these names and/or nominations made by the session, twice the number to be elected shall ordinarily be presented to the congregation.
3. The names of those being presented by the session shall be announced to the congregation on two successive Lord's Days to allow for lawful objections.
4. After prayer the election by the congregation shall take place under supervision of the session.
5. The right to vote shall be limited to communicant members in good standing.

The Church Order

Ordination/Installation

Article 5

All office-bearers shall be ordained or installed in public worship services with the use of the prescribed forms.

Re-election or Extension of Office

Article 7

Retiring Elders and Deacons shall be succeeded by others unless the circumstances and the well-being of any church render re-election or extension of time advisable.

Installation Only

Article 8

When any office-bearer has already been ordained, upon re-election to the same office, he shall be installed only.

Form of Subscription

Article 9

When office-bearers are ordained or installed, they shall be required to sign the Synodically accepted Form of Subscription.

3. Ministers of other denominations who have been declared eligible for call by Presbytery;
4. Those who have been declared candidates according to Article 12 of this Church Order.

¹ Theological candidates are eligible for call who have successfully completed the prescribed course of study at the Reformed Theological College, Geelong, Australia, or its equivalent (Acts 1989, Art. 19.b).

The Church Order

Colloquium Doctum

Article 11

No Minister shall be received from any other denomination without a colloquium doctum prior to his installation (a colloquium doctum is understood to be a thorough investigation of the theological training and ministerial record and a careful examination regarding soundness in the Reformed Faith, exemplariness of life, and motives for seeking the ministry in the Reformed Churches of New Zealand).²

Exemptions in the Case of Exceptional Gifts

Article 12

Persons who have not pursued the regular study in preparation for the ministry of the Word shall not be admitted to the ministry, unless there is assurance of their exceptional gifts, godliness, humility, modesty, common sense and discretion, as also gifts of public address.

When such persons present themselves for the ministry, the Presbytery, with the consent of Synod, shall first examine them, and further deal with them as it shall deem edifying, according to the general regulations of the Churches.

Credentials Necessary to Move Elsewhere

Article 13

A minister once lawfully called may not leave the congregation with which he is connected to accept a call elsewhere, without the consent of the session and knowledge of the Presbytery.

Likewise, no other church may receive him until he has presented a proper certificate of dismissal from the Church and the Presbytery where he served.

Proper Support, No Rash Dismissal

Article 14

The session, as representing the congregation, shall provide for the proper support of its ministers and shall not dismiss them from service without the knowledge and approbation of the Presbytery and Synodical Examiners.

Secular Vocation

Article 15

Ministers of the Word may not enter upon a secular vocation except for such weighty reasons as shall receive the approval of Presbytery.

² The colloquium doctum for ministers coming from sister-churches is to be understood as not being the equivalent of a final examination, but is to focus on soundness of doctrine, sanctity of life and knowledge and appreciation of the practice and usage of the Reformed Churches of New Zealand (Acts 1989, Art. 19.d).

The Church Order

Temporary or Permanent Release from Service to a Congregation (Acts 2014, Art. 127.3,4)

2. A minister who is not eligible for retirement or worthy of discipline may for weighty reasons be released from service in a congregation through action initiated by himself or by his session. Such release shall be given only with the approval of presbytery, with concurring advice of the synodical examiners and in accordance with synodical regulations.

2. Rebuke: A form of censure more severe than admonition, which consists in setting forth the serious character of the offence, reproving the offender and exhorting him to repentance and to more perfect fidelity to Christ.
3. Suspension: Depriving of the privileges of membership in the church, or office, or of both, either for a definite or an indefinite time.

2. In the second announcement (with the concurrence of the presbytery) the name of the sinner and the sin shall be made known;

Concurrence of Suspension from Nearest Session Article 84

Suspension from office shall ordinarily precede deposition and shall be imposed by the session only with concurrence of the session of the nearest church in the same presbytery.

Revision of the Church Order

Article 96

This Church Order, having been adopted by common consent, shall be faithfully observed and any revision thereof shall be made only by Synod.

Ministers

Form of Subscription (Acts of Synod 1977, Art. 76)

We, the undersigned, office-bearers of the Reformed Churches of New Zealand, do hereby, sincerely and in good conscience before the Lord, declare by this our subscription that we heartily believe and are persuaded that the whole system of doctrine as taught in the Belgic and Westminster Confessions, the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of Dort, does fully agree with the Word of God.

We therefore promise to teach diligently and to defend faithfully the aforesaid doctrine, without either directly or indirectly contradicting the same by our public preaching or writing.

We declare moreover that we not only reject all errors that militate against this doctrine, but that we are disposed to refute and contradict these and to exert ourselves in keeping the church free from such errors.

And if hereafter any difficulties or different sentiments respecting the aforesaid doctrines should arise in our minds, we promise that we will neither publicly nor privately propose, teach, or defend the same, either by preaching or writing, until we have first revealed such sentiments to the Session, Presbytery or Synod, that the same may be examined, being ready always cheerfully to submit to the judgment of the Session, Presbytery or Synod, under penalty, in case of refusal, of being by that very fact suspended from our office.

Furthermore, if at any time the Session, Presbytery or Synod, may deem it proper to require of us a further explanation of our sentiments respecting any particular doctrine of any of the afore mentioned standards, we do hereby promise to be always willing and ready to comply with such requisition, under the penalty above mentioned, reserving for ourselves however the right of appeal in case we should believe ourselves aggrieved by the sentence of the Session or the Presbytery, and until a decision is made upon such an appeal, we will acquiesce in the determination and judgment already passed.

NOTE: Synod 1977 adopted the Form of Subscription with only one change, viz, to accept "the whole system of doctrine" instead of the old reading "the whole system of truth," in the latter part of the first paragraph.

Guidelines to Form of Subscription

(Acts of Synod 1971, Art. 45; 1977, Art. 76.6)

Guidelines as to the meaning of subscription to the confessions by means of the Form of Subscription.

Synod 1971 declared that subscription by office-bearers is understood in the following way:

- a. That the person making subscription subscribes to ALL the doctrines set forth in the confessions, as being doctrines which are the teaching of the Word of God.
- b. That the subscriber, so subscribes to all these doctrines, be they understood in the eyes of men as being major or minor doctrines of the Christian Faith, without any reservation on his part and that he confesses these doctrines to be his own understanding of the teaching of the Word of God, desires to maintain such, and rejects all other teachings which would contradict the same;
- c. That the subscriber does not by his subscription declare that the statements of these doctrines are formulated in the best manner, or with the use of the best words, or that the Confessional Standards of our denomination cover all the teaching of the Scriptures on the matters confessed, or that every teaching of Scripture is dealt with by the Confessional Standards, or that the Confessional Standards of our denomination refute all the heresies that now exist (Acts 1969, Report 17.2, p. 79 slightly amended);
- d. That only the doctrines intentionally conveyed are binding and not such allusions, or incidental remarks, or propositions which can derived from the Confessions are binding. Nevertheless no one is free ultimately to decide for himself or for the Church what is and what is not a doctrine contained in the Standards. If such a question shall arise the Form of Subscription itself specifies quite clearly that it is the decision of the court of the Church that shall be sought, reached and acquiesced in, in every case.

NOTE: Guidelines as to the meaning of subscription on the Confessions, were adopted by Synod 1971. Synod 1977 directed that they be appended to the Form of Subscription.
